C. By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you are able to allocate sufficient time to meet the expectations from your role to the satisfaction of the Board.

IV. Role and Duties:

As a Non-Executive Director you are expected to bring objectivity and independence of view to the Board's discussions and to facilitate the Board with effective leadership in relation to the Company's strategy, performance, and risk management as well as ensuring high standards of financial probity and corporate governance.

Your role and duties will be those normally required of a Non-Executive Independent Director under the Companies Act, 2013. There are certain duties prescribed for all Directors, both Executive and Non-Executive, which are fiduciary in nature and are as under:

- i. You shall act in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and Company's Articles of Association.
- ii. You shall act in good faith in order to promote the objects of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole, and in the best interest of the Company.
- iii. You shall discharge your duties with due and reasonable care, skill and diligence.
- iv. You shall not involve yourself in a situation in which you may have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interest of the Company.
- v. You shall not achieve or attempt to achieve any undue gain or advantage either to yourself or to your relatives, partners or associates.
- vi. You shall not assign your office as Director and any assignments so made shall be void.

V. Remuneration:

You will be paid such remuneration by way of sitting fees for attending the meetings of the Board and its Committees as may be decided by the Board. Further, you will also be paid remuneration by way of commission as may be approved by the Board within an overall ceiling approved by the Shareholders.

The payment of sitting fees will be within the limits mandated under the Companies Act, 2013 and Rules made thereunder (as amended from time to time).

VI. Reimbursement of Expenses:

In addition to the remuneration described in point V, the Company will, for the period of your appointment, reimburse you for travel, hotel and other incidental expenses incurred by you in the performance of your role and duties.

VII. Confidentiality:

- All information acquired during your appointment is confidential and should not be released, either during your appointment or following termination (by whatever means) to third parties without prior clearance from the Chairman unless required by law or regulatory authorities. On reasonable request, you shall surrender any documents and other materials made available to you by JSWCL.
- This restriction shall cease to apply to any confidential information which may (other than reason of your breach) become available to the public generally.

- You acknowledge the need to hold and retain company information (in whatever format you receive it) under appropriately secure conditions.
- You will not, except with the prior written consent of the Company, be in any way connected with or interested in any business in competition with that of the Company. This does not prevent you from holding equity or other securities in other companies, however it is expected that you will not serve on the Boards of competing companies.

VIII. Disclosure of Interest:

You are required to disclose to the Company your interests and any matters which affect your independence. You are required to notify the Company whenever there is any change in these interests.

The Company must include in its Annual Accounts a note of any material interest that a Director may have in any transaction or arrangement that the Company has entered into. Such interest should be disclosed no later than when the transaction or arrangement comes up at a Board meeting so that the minutes may record your interest appropriately and our records are updated. A general notice that you are interested in any contracts with a particular person, firm or company is acceptable.

IX. Termination:

- A. You may resign from your position at any time and should you wish to do so, you are requested to serve a reasonable written notice to the Board.
- B. Continuation of your appointment shall be subject to the Nomination Policy of the Company in force from time to time and is contingent on your getting re-elected by the shareholders in accordance with provisions of Companies Act, 2013 and the Articles of Association of the Company in force. You will not be entitled to compensation, if the shareholders do not re-elect you at any time.
- C. Your directorship on the Board of the Company shall terminate or cease in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Articles of Association of the Company. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, your directorship on the Board of the Company would terminate if:
 - (i) your performance is found to be unsatisfactory;
 - (ii) you fail to make substantive contributions in your capacity as a member of the Board of the Company;
 - (iii) your professional integrity is compromised or seen to be comprised;
 - (iv) your conduct is unbecoming of a director of the Company;
